Integrated Logistics Launches Operations at the Port of Argentia
Press Release - April 27, 2010

For Immediate Release

The Argentia Port Corporation (APC), a subsidiary of the Argentia Management Authority Inc. (AMA), is pleased to welcome Integrated Logistics (NL) Ltd. (IL) to the Port of Argentia, and as part of the Town of Placentia Business Community.

Today, at the Argentia Management Authority's office in Argentia, Integrated Logistics General Manager Mr. Andrew Short officially signed their lease option agreement for land located on Waterfront Drive in the Port of Argentia with AMA Chief Executive Officer Ken Browne. Integrated Logistic is part of an extended stevedoring network that has the partnerships in place to handle cargo through 23 port terminals strategically located along the St. Lawrence Seaway, from Eastern Canada to the North American heartland.

AMA Chief Executive Officer, Ken Browne said, "AMA is delighted that Integrated Logistics chose to locate its expanded operations at the Port of Argentia. We welcome companies such as Integrated Logistics who want to position themselves to capitalize on the many exceptional opportunities presented by major projects happening throughout Newfoundland and Labrador today like Vale Inco's $2.8 billion Commercial Nickel Hydrometallurgy Project and the Hebron Project to mention just a few."

IL General Manager, Andrew Short, excited about today's official lease signing with the APC and the tremendous business potential provided by establishing their operations at the Port of Argentia stated, "We have been discussing the marine transport needs for both the primary owners, and supplier firms, of the major industrial projects in the province. This new port terminal combined with our unique equipment shows our commitment to these projects and clients. We are pleased to join the local business community of the Argentia area and we are planning a recruitment campaign for the coming weeks."

IL will provide outstanding logistics services to the Port of Argentia consisting of material handling, warehousing, stevedoring, marine transportation, shipping logistics, security, and other related services. For more information, please contact their office at 709-739-4036, or visit their website at <http://www.integratednl.com>.

The Port of Argentia is ready for any business requiring land and docking facilities, in close proximity to available buildings and boasts very competitive rates. As a distribution hub, Argentia is the right location as confirmed by our other tenants and now Integrated Logistics today!
